Network Distribution Solutions (NDS) Names Aspen Logistics as its Regional Carrier for West Coast Operations

Network Distribution Solutions (NDS) names Aspen Logistics as its Regional Carrier in providing logistics services for West Coast Operations. The network is a Marketing Alliance of asset-based logistics providers who have joined together to extend their networks into seamless nationwide coverage and a diversified menu of solutions. Aspen will be responsible for utilizing their best-in-class services and industry-leading values to congeal the network's west coast service footprint. The selection was made by the network after a thorough examination of Aspen's capabilities and vision for growth. The network felt that Aspen's reputation, motivations, and past success would make them an optimal candidate to grow business.

Aspen is honored to be named as the selection of this respected organization. They are looking forward to surpassing expectations and driving results in the west. The asset-based company places an emphasis on core values and developing long-standing relationships that promote mutual success. They feel that these strong motivations are essential to performing within the network and providing indispensable value.

All the NDS carriers, including Aspen are driven to provide a dependable, cost-efficient, single-source for multi-temperature logistics solutions to diverse industries around the nation. Aspen is looking forward to its commitment and contribution to the organization's success.
